young people with special education needs

What is a Special Educational Needs & Disability Information Advice & Support Service (SENDIASS)?

The SENDIASS Service provides independent impartial advice to parents/carers about their child's special educational needs, We provide advice to children and young people about their SEN too. Gateshead's SENDIASS Service is provided by Barnardo's Disability and Inclusion Support Service on behalf of Gateshead Council.

The Team:

- Sarah Duncan SENDIASS Manager
- Linda Elliott SENDIASS Officer
- Bev Thornton SENDIASS Officer
- Rebecca Pharaoh Young People's Worker
- Jess Foster Administrator & Volunteer

Coordinator

- Independent Parental Supporters (a team of trained volunteers who provide impartial support and advice)

How we can help

- Provide impartial advice and information on Special Educational Needs processes
- Help you complete parental/ children/young peoples views and review forms
- Support you if you would like to make a request for statutory assessment for an EHC Plan
- Support you where someone else (usually the school) has made a request for a statutory assessment
- Support you when your child is at SEN support or have an EHC Plan (known as single plan)
- Support you at meetings
- Support you to look at schools
- Give advice on how you can express your views
- Signpost on to other useful organisations
- Provide support through a team of trained Volunteer Supporters who can provide impartial support and advice
- Provide you with an Independent Supporter throughout the assessment process
